

2019 KidVid Contest Rules

Overseas Briefing Center
Transition Center

The Foreign Service Institute (FSI), in collaboration with the Foreign Service Youth Foundation (FSYF), announces the 24th annual worldwide KidVid Contest, open to children between the ages of 10 - 18. Contestants submit an original video that depicts life for Foreign Service youth at their post. FSYF awards winners cash prizes and invites them to attend the annual FSYF Youth Award Ceremony on June 26 in the Burns Auditorium at the U.S. Department of State. The Overseas Briefing Center (OBC), a division of FSI's Transition Center administers the contest.

Foreign Service children and their parents rely on the OBC and its online resources to research assignments and life at post. One of OBC's most popular resources is its collection of post audiovisuals, which depict the housing, schooling, recreational facilities, community, and city life. KidVids, which are an integral part of the overall collection, communicate and highlight these same aspects from the viewpoint of the younger members of the foreign affairs community. KidVids illustrate what life will be like for youth at post.

Content and Technical Guidelines

Posts are welcome to pass contest rules directly to potential contestants.

What would be of most interest to children and teens whose parents have an upcoming assignment to your post? Examples should include:

City

- a.) Major sights
- b.) View of the city from a high point
- c.) Local neighborhoods and shopping areas that you use
- d.) Typical landscape, different animals (if applicable)

Housing

- a.) Exterior and interior housing views - at least a couple of examples from different embassy neighborhoods, especially if housing differs considerably at various locations
- b.) View of a typical bedroom for different age groups
- c.) Backyard or play areas for kids

School

- a.) View of school buildings, playgrounds, and sports fields
- b.) Classrooms, library, computer room, chemistry lab or other rooms of particular interest
- c.) Short clips of school activities in progress (if possible), including students and teachers
- d.) Special equipment in use
- e.) Sports teams and facilities

Shopping

- a.) Where does your family buy groceries every week? Are there good places to shop for clothes?
- b.) Favorite shopping areas where you go with your family or can go to by yourself

Community life

- a.) What kind of recreational activities do you have at your post? Include examples such as pool, American Club, beaches, horseback riding, etc.
- b.) How do you celebrate American holidays at post?
- c.) What are the favorite restaurants in the city? Do you have fast food restaurants similar to those in the United States?
- d.) What are the biggest tourist attractions at your post?
- e.) What is the internet service like?
- f.) How do you communicate with friends in the U.S. or at other overseas posts?

4. Contest Rules and Eligibility for Video Production

- a.) Eligibility: Family members (ages 10-18) of U.S. government direct-hire and contract employees assigned to the U.S. Mission.
- b.) Contest procedures: OBC requests the Management Counselor/Officer or Community Liaison Office Coordinator advertise the contest at post.
- c.) A camera-ready advertisement and a set of contest rules are available on the OBC OpenNet at <http://tc.fsi.state.sbu/6861>.
- d.) Children can view a Prezi presentation that provides useful contest details and an interview with a previous KidVid winner, available on the Internet at <https://prezi.com/8picktqdt0ss/2019-kidvid-contest>. This works best using Google Chrome.
- e.) All posts are welcome to submit nominations. Previous winners are welcome to enter again. Boarding school students spending the holidays with parents at post are also welcome to participate.
- f.) Submit entries as a hardcopy video via CD, DVD, thumb drive, SD card or other physical media compatible with U.S. (NTSC) high or standard definition. The entry can be an MP4, WMV, AVI or other compatible file. Do not send electronically. Before recording footage, be aware of any local restrictions on using a video camera in public. Videotaped Americans need to be informed of the purpose of the video (see paragraph 6) or visit <http://tc.fsi.state.sbu/6861>.
- g.) Judging is based on the visual presentation as well as the narration describing the footage and life at post. As much as possible, use live footage. Provide narration continuously throughout the entire video. Audio clarity and volume consistency during coverage of content and a steady hand with the video recorder are also important.
- h.) Music, graphics, and special effects may be used but are not required. We are not looking for professional quality productions; good home-video quality is perfectly acceptable. Technical quality is not as important as content. A good product is one that gives a clear portrayal of a child/teen's life at post. Do not include copyright-protected music or images as part of the final product.

- i.) Ideal video length is between 15 and 20 minutes.
- j.) We ask that adults provide minimal assistance in the video production.
- k.) The contest allows for multiple entries from different students at a post.
- l.) Group submissions are acceptable. Be advised that group winners will have their prize money divided accordingly.

5. The Foreign Service Youth Foundation, through a generous donation from Jim McGrath - Associate Broker, ReMax Premier will award cash prizes to the top winners.

6. All submissions become the property of the OBC, which houses them at the center for use by employees and their family members and uploads the winning entries to OBC's OpenNet site <http://tc.fsi.state.sbu/6861> for use by bidders at embassies and consulates worldwide. The winning entries are also available on the "members only" portion of www.FSYF.org.
